Branch Committee of Management Elections

The Australian Electoral Commission has just released the notice of election and nomination forms for the Branch Committee of Management elections. There are six positions available and I would encourage anyone eligible and interested to nominate.

If you are interested but unsure of what the role consists of then please call the office or current delegate for further information. The notification of election and nomination form can be found attached to this Code 2 or on the right side of the union website. Please be advised that the listed dates must be strictly adhered to.
